PowerLender® LoanPilot™ Point-of-Sale System

Introduction

PowerLender LoanPilot™ is a complete, robust Point-of-Sale System that was designed to meet the online lending needs of today's borrowers. It is intuitive and extremely easy to use. LoanPilot can be branded to the lender's specifications to match their present online 'look and feel' or to meet any future marketing objectives. Below are some of the significant features of LoanPilot.

Features include:

- Cloud-based web application
- Supports desktop PCs, laptops, tablets (iPad), smart phones, virtually all mobile devices
- Online Applications:
    – Quick Pre-Qual Questionnaire (Limited information about borrower)
    – Full Complete Loan Interview Questionnaire
    – URLA Mortgage Application
    – Construction Application
    – Equity Loan Application
    – Home Equity Lines of Credit (HELOC) Application
    – Consumer Loans (Vehicle, Personal, Collateral) Application
    – Commercial Loan Application (C&I and SBA)
- Multi-language capabilities
- Integration with PowerLender using Fannie Mae 3.20 format
- Borrower Portal Sites. Ability for Borrower to upload documents
- Assign loan applications to Loan Officers
- Multi-Level Permissions
- Email and Text notifications sent to Loan Officer when application submitted
- Borrower Checklist (viewable and printable)
- Borrower Opt-in
- Data formatting
- Configure app questions such as Exclude DOB or Social Security questions
- Pipeline report with ACTION capabilities:
    – Edit Borrower Info
    – Archive application
    – Resume application (Loan Officer can take over the application process)
    – Export application data (Fannie Mae 3.20 format)
    – Document Center
    – Loan Officer Checklist
    – Application Summary Report (printout of applications questions/answers)